Chesapeake Science Point Public Charter School students' recent mathematics accomplishments recognized by Governor O'Malley and Anne Arundel County House of Delegate Sophocleus via two honoring letters.

Tristan Carmean, a CSP 7th grader, received a very inspiring letter from the Governor on representing the United States of America at a Global Math Competition hosted by the President of Australia, last March. After congratulating Tristan, Governor O'Malley mentioned that he would look forward to Tristan's future achievements as well.

Lukash Onshkevych, a CSP 8th grader, also received a very encouraging letter of recognition from Anne Arundel County House of Delegate Ted Sophocleus, on representing the State of Maryland in the National MathCounts Competition. This competition will be held in May 2010, in Orlando, Florida. After congratulating Lukash, Delegate Sophocleus also recognized the entire Team Infinity of CSP along with Coach Avsar.

As the CSP Community we truly appreciate both Governor O'Malley's and Delegate Sophocleus' invaluable efforts to support our children at CSP. They will continue to be the shining stars of our County, State and Nation.
