Chesapeake Science Point Public Charter School Governing Board members met with Governor O'Malley prior to a community reception held in Annapolis last week. During the meeting CSP Board members were able to update the Governor about CSP's most recent regional, statewide, national and international accomplishments. Governor O'Malley congratulated the CSP Governing Board.

During the reception Governor O'Malley also delivered a very powerful speech and recognized Chesapeake Science Point Public Charter School and its recent math accomplishments.

CSP Governing Board members appreciated the governor's recognition and support for Chesapeake Science Point students and kindly invited him to CSP. After the event commemorative pictures of the reception featuring Governor O'Malley and CSP Board members were taken.
