PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Fatih Kandil 443-7575-CSP

American Math Challenge National Competition results are just in. Chesapeake Science Point Public Charter School is announced to be the BEST of all participating 1,329 schools across the nation.

The American Math Challenge Competition is organized by two prestigious national math competition organizations, MATH Counts and Mathletics. 1,329 schools participated with 68, 578 students. Chesapeake Science Point Public Charter School made the FIRST place among all participating courageous schools.

Tristen Carmean, a CSP 7th grader, made the third place among almost 70,000 students. Sandar Sandeep (15th), Jack Andraka(22nd), Micah Nissly(27th), Andrew Link (60th), and Kenneth Griffin(97th) also made the first 100 students following Tristen.

Congratulations to Coach Avsar, his students and the entire CSP Community!

Chesapeake Science Point Public Charter School continues to proudly represent Anne Arundel County and the State of Maryland on the NATIONAL grounds.
